Project Description:

New Hope Waves is a local non-profit organization working among children, youth and families based in Livingstone, Zambia. We are using education, sports and charity work to realize the vision of making an impact that will change and decrease the struggles in our vulnerable community around Livingstone.

We are running a School that provides affordable education to vulnerable children from families that cannot afford to pay school fees in both government and private schools so we have children from most vulnerable communities mainly Ngwenya, Namatama, Zecco, Highlands and Maramba.

Notice: This is an Africa WG project. Please contact the SCI branch or partner organisation in your country for further information.

Work: We have more than 100 children from the ages of 4- 15 years old from the preschool to grade 1-5 in a small rented house with 3 rooms we have morning and afternoon sessions to meet the needs of their education.

We have 3 local teachers that need assistant volunteers to assist in teaching and organize some more educational activities during their stay.

Normally, the volunteers will start working at 08:00 to 12:00 in the morning where they will be teaching in some community schools such where you will be teaching

Math, English, Art and General Knowledge that making an impact in the lives of the young students through education, songs, drama, arts and so forth.

Requirements: Able to adapt to the local culture. We hope that you are flexible, kind and have experience with teaching and/or working with children before.

Food: You will cook your own food at the volunteer house.
