Project Description:

The project itself is job-shadowing. The hosting organisation is a local language school which provides the opportunity for young people who aims to become teachers in the future to try real teaching and improve teaching skills. The aim of the project is to contribute into the education and development of the local children who is highly interested in learning different languages. Moreover the volunteer will organize weekly discussion clubs for teenagers and students.

Work: The volunteer will work 3-4 hours per day at the language school. The work will be done 5 days per week. The work is done both independently and in a team. The volunteers will work in the afternoon and they will have lessons of the Russian language in the morning. But the schedule is flexible and it is discussed upon arrival. Each lesson of Russian for 1 hour costs 8 EU. We provide free accomodation and the volunteer is paid according to the ammount of working hours he/she had during the week. The amount of sum covers volunteer's food and local transport expenses. Also as it is a language project the volunteers will have the lessons of Russian.
